

Picture of the week posting details.

Feb 26, 2007

Here are additional details before sending the picture.

1. The picture will be posted on the main page of the web site. By sending it to webadmin you agree that we can post it there.
2. The picture will be posted without any changes, other than resizing to allow for faster web page display.
3. Miltonheights has no rights to the picture, it is yours, and if you decide to remove early then please email webadmin urgently.
4. The picture will be posted for a period of "about" a week.
5. We reserve the right as to which picture to post, and when.
6. With the picture please send details of what, who, when, and where, that you want us to add to the picture. You may want to add any of this info or none.

NOTE: There are size restrictions from the web site server. If you email to webadmin and the email bounces back, then please send a smaller picture. Or send an email to webadmin without the picture.

Details will be posted shortly on the size limit accepted by the web server.
